Fire Victims' Support Center

Following the devastating fires across the country, Keren b'Kavod – the IMPJ Fund for Humanitarian Assistance and Social Responsibility, the Leo Baeck Education Center and Congregation “Ohel Avraham” in Haifa opened a support center for families in need, including: immediate hospitality, food supplies and recovering household items which survived the fire.

But this is not enough – and we need your help!

Help us give immediate support to all those who have lost their homes and other fire victims. These families need our help. With your generous contribution, we will be able to continue assisting those who are most in need, by providing them with:

- Gift card for the purchase of food and clothing
- Toys
- Electrical Household Items
- Backpacks and School Supplies
