

ARVHA, Association for Research on the City and Housing, launches in 2018 the sixth edition of the French Prize for Women Architects with the support of the Ministry of Culture and Communication, the Ministry of Childhood, Families and Women's rights, The Pavillon de l'Arsenal, the National Council of the Order of Architects and the Regional Council of order of Architects from IDF region . For the 2018 Awards, ARVHA also receives the support of BNP Paribas Real Estate, Ciments Calcia, Technal, Rockwool, Unibail-Rodamco and Saint-Gobain.

This award aims at highlighting the work and careers of women architects, so that young women architects can build on existing female models, and at encouraging parity and equality in a male-dominated profession.

The only requirements to participate in the award are to be registered with the Order of Architects and being the author of the projects.

Four prizes are awarded for this sixth edition:

- Young Woman Architect Prize for women under 40 years old, for her projects (built or to-be);
- Original Work Prize for a work conducted by a female architect;
- Woman architect Prize for projects - 3-5 works constructed;
- International Prize 3-5 works constructed by a woman architect registered to the Order of Architect in her own country.

The competition is open from the first of May and will end the 31th of July 2018.

The award ceremony will be held on December 10th, 2018 in the Pavillon de l'Arsenal in Paris from 5pm to 8pm.
