Summary of offer	* Environmental Friendly Plastic Substitute * Cooperation with Waste Management/RDF Players and Local Authorities to Establish our Plant Abroad
Description of Offer Our company has developed a novel thermoplastic material that simultaneously tackles the crisis of waste and greenhouse gas emissions. By converting organic and unrecyclable waste into our new material, a climate-positive plastic substitute, companies can quickly and cost-effectively transition away from fossil fuels to reduce their environmental footprint. Our material is a breakthrough plastic substitute made entirely from organic and unrecyclable waste. Our material-patented technology converts organic waste (such as banana peels, chicken bones, pizza boxes, etc.) into basic particles that are reconstructed and bonded with mixed plastics into a new thermoplastic matrix. The homogeneous material is a highly recyclable substitute for oil-based resins, wood, and additional resource-intensive materials. Certified UL 2809, our material contains 100 percent post-consumer recycled materials and is USDA BioPreferred. Target markets/customers: Global brands, such as Mercedes Benz, PepsiCo, Anheuser Busch, and Nestle, have integrated our material into durable products and across supply chain applications. Materials ecosystem players, including Polyram, Ducor, Resirene, and Polymertal, have also integrated our material into their offerings.

We are looking for material and petrochemical leaders, consumer brands, automotive OEMs, logistics, retail, and construction industries to have all turned to our material to close the loop between their ecosystem of material and the global ecosystem of waste for circularity and positive climate impact.

Potential Partners	Export: plastic supply chain (compounders, manufacturers, molders, and brands). Import: waste processors, RDF manufactures.
Target Countries	Germany, Italy, UK, USA, Brazil, Japan, UAE.

Summary of offer	Hand Tools and Technical Equipment

Description of Offer

The company, founded in 1947, is engaged with importing, marketing, distributing, and selling high-quality power tools for production, manufacturing and maintenance, such as manual and electric tools, precise measuring devices, technical supplies, and auxiliary equipment.

The company offers consulting services and professional technical solutions to various issues.

For close to 70 years of activity, with professional and technical experience, we have expanded the range of products and services provided by us in a wide variety of industries, in the fields of high-tech industries and enterprises, electronics cleanrooms, microelectronics, medical equipment, optical equipment, safety, and security equipment, communications equipment, digital printing equipment, electricity, and garage equipment.

Our goal is to maintain a high-quality product line that will continue to connect and tighten our relationship with the end user and the manufacturer-supplier; thus, we import from manufacturers with the International Standard ISO9001:2008.

We have several dealers, but we must increase the variety of our suppliers to meet our customers' demands and the pace of work, which must be very fast.

We want to import more tools and technical equipment at different levels with the appropriate quality requirements to all industries, including DIY.

Potential Partners	Dealers of various American brands.
Other Information	Since its inception, our company has upheld and attached great importance to the quality of its products and services. We have work agreements with large clients and institutions, so we must be quick and attractive in price.
