- Airports
Ben Gurion International airport (TLV) stays open as foreign airlines cancel flights. Ben Gurion Airport remains open, but the security situation and staff availability could affect flights.
The conflict has caused significant flight disruptions Major international airlines suspend flights to Israel amid war on Gaza
Israel's civil aviation authority said airlines should "review current security and threat information" and had changed some air traffic routes. The authority noted that delays should be expected and advised airlines flying to Israel to carry extra fuel as precautionary measure.

Several airlines, such as Wizz Air, LOT Polish Airlines, Air India, Turkish Airlines, American Airlines, Delta Air Lines, Egypt Air, Air

Canada, Emirates, Air France, Dutch carrier KLM, Germany's Lufthansa, Finland's Finnair, Norwegian Air, Portugal's TAP, and Polish carrier LOT, along with the Lufthansa Group (comprising SWISS, Brussels Airlines, and Austrian Airlines), either cancelled or reduced flights to Tel Aviv's international airport, Ben Gurion Airport. Other countries like China, Hong Kong, and South Korea cancelled all flights to Tel Aviv.

- Seaports

- The port of Ashdod is currently operating in "emergency mode" status.
- The port of Haifa which also include the Haifa Bay port and Israel shipyard port is operating as usual.

Following an announcement about "special situation in the hinterland" in the geographical area in which Ashdod Port is included, the Ministry of Transportation has directed the port to regulate the entry of vessels according to the hereby procedure:

1. Entry of vessels carrying Hazardous Materials ("HAZMAT") of any kind into Ashdod Port, is subject to a prior approval of Israel's Administration of Shipping and Ports.
2. Shipping agents are required to send detailed list of all HAZMAT of any type on vessels scheduled to arrive at the port of Ashdod, 48 hours prior its arrival at the port. The above applies to both container ships and general and bulk cargo ships.

- General

Israeli companies involved along the international supply chain, have upgraded their activities in recent days in order to address the situation and have taken the necessary steps to enable local importers and exporters fulfill their commercial undertakings.

- The Israel Defense Forces (IDF) have closed main roads near the border with the Gaza Strip.
- Officials have announced that schools will be closed in central and southern Israel on Oct. 11.
- Heightened security measures and disruptions to transport and business will almost certainly continue in central and southern areas of Israel over at least the short term.
- Heightened security is likely at all Israeli ports of entry over the coming days, and the status of border crossings, airports, seaports, roads, and rail services may change on short notice in response to conflict developments. Precautionary measures, such as evacuations, are possible in areas impacted by armed conflict.
